DESTINATION

SICILY

A rich territory with a range of alternative itineraries that range between nature, history and tradition. Nature itself seems to have destined its greatest wonders to this land: mountains, hills, and above all the sea which, with its incredible colours, the transparency of the waters and the beauty of its seabed, excels over other seas.

In this land, the Mediterranean offers such unique and intense scenarios, aromas and flavors that only uncontaminated nature can offer.

Just think of the islands surrounding Sicily: Aeolian, Aegadian, Pelagie and Ustica: so similar in the beauty of their territory and so peculiar in nature, tradition, art and history. Not to forget the evocative volcanoes, some of which have never subsided such as Etna and Stromboli.

ITINERARY

AEOLIAN ISLANDS

A beautiful area of islands, considered the 7 pearls of Sicily. They are the timeless Aeolian Islands: fascinating, diverse, welcoming.

From Stromboli, the roaring volcano that offers primordial panoramas and emotions to Filicudi, enchanted and wild with its La Canna stack and the magical village of Pecorini a Mare, passing through the poetic Salina with its vines overlooking the sea that surround Pollara and all its wonderful coast... up to the fun and intriguing Panarea, and then be amazed by Lipari, which enchants with its turquoise pumice waters.

Stromboli, an island with strong energy and unique characteristics. In addition to magical contrasts between land and sea, it offers one of the most unique shows in the world: the "Sciara dei Sassi". Here one side of the volcano, still active today, is subject to frequent lava eruptions and due to the landslides some stones at the top of the mountain begin to roll and plunge into the sea with incredible splashes.

Salina, to be visited from land as well as from the sea to admire wonderful colours. In Salina they produce a typical sweet wine called Malvasia delle Lipari, fruit of the volcanic earth, and the very famous capers.

Panarea, more social and nocturnal than the others, with characteristic streets that intersect to form the small town. Worth visiting is the islet of Basiluzzo, a rock stack surrounded by a splendid sea of a thousand colours. Famous as a favorite destination for VIPs and film sets.

Alicudi and Filicudi, with fantastic green rocks which, with their height and vegetation, stand out on the horizon in a cobalt blue sea. The nearest Filicudi is a splendid island where time has stopped. The ruins of a Neolithic village can be visited. Capers and figs are produced here. The Grotta del Bue Marino is famous. Alicudi, on the other hand, is a completely uninhabited nature reserve and difficult to land on, but splendid from the sea. There are no means of transport, only mules and caravans are used.

ITINERARY PELAGIE ISLANDS

Three undisputed pearls of the most extreme South of Italy.

Lampedusa, a limestone island considered one of the most beautiful in the world. The transparency of its crystalline waters, as in Cala Pulcino or the Isola dei Conigli reserve, thanks to the very white limestone sand, offers unparalleled underwater visibility.

Pantelleria, a volcanic island whose hinterland rich in vegetation has allowed the development of the cultivation of exceptional products such as grapes, capers, wine and figs. All on the slopes of Montagna Grande, a true "balcony overlooking the sea".

Finally, Linosa, small but with peculiar characteristics including Cala Pozzolana, the caldera of a volcano that has half collapsed into the sea.
